

a non-exhaustive list of
CONDITIONS FOR PEACE IN NAGORNO-KARABAKH given by
ARMENIAN AND AZERBAIJANI FACEBOOK USERS
according to davinci-009

Facebook posts are filtered by mentions of #ArmAzerPeace, #PeaceforArmenia, #peaceforArmenians and #nkpeace (n: 537)

ARM: System prompt: You are a helpful research assistant that is an expert in classifying small texts such as social media posts. Prompt: (a) Does this post refer to peace in Artsakh or Armenia?; (b) If yes, describe the conditions for peace to be met in Artsakh or Armenia according to this post.
AZ: System prompt: You are a helpful research assistant that is an expert in classifying small texts such as social media posts. Prompt: (a) Does this post refer to peace in Artsakh or Armenia?; (b) If yes, describe the conditions for peace to be met in Nagorno-Karabakh or Azerbaijan according to this post.

ARMENIAN-SPEAKING POSTS	overall engagement (interactions)	AZERBAIJANI-SPEAKING POSTS	overall engagement (interactions)
- stopping the violence and aggression, starting to take action to bring about peace, strengthening the Artsakh and Armenia people, and showing solidarity with them.	53,043	- honoring the memory of the martyr Anar Kazimov, who was killed in the direction of Lachin region, and ensuring that his body is buried in the Garajimilli village cemetery. Additionally, the post implies that the Russian Federation's peacekeeping contingent is in the region to help maintain peace.	11,411
- justice and spiritual strength in order to achieve peace in Artsakh and Armenia. It also encourages people to show love and support for their brothers, and to support the song of Arthur Dvir in order to reach justice. Finally, it promotes the hashtags #Gimiljanah, #Artsakh, #WINNING, #ARSTAKHSTRONG, and #Armenia in order to spread awareness of the need for peaceand Armenia.	43,274	- opening of the essence of Sevchenko Pashyan by the Marvine, and the taking of peace talks by an unfinished Prime Minister	10,645
- the independence of the Republic of Artsakh and its right for self-determination. The post also calls for an end to the increased escalation of the conflict and the targeting of innocent Armenian civilians.	37,708	- diplomatic efforts to convince five of the 50 states to recognize Karabakh as part of Azerbaijan, the allocation of 2.6 billion euros to Armenia, the European Union, and Afghanistan, the introduction of Azerbaijan to the world by Ceyhun Bayramov, and the lobbying efforts of Ziya Mamadov's son in America and Kamaldin Heydarov's son in Britain.	10,358
- an end to the military actions against Armenians, an end to the bombardment of Stepanakert and other civilian infrastructures, an end to the shelling of the territory of the Republic of Armenia, and an end to the international terrorism that Nagorno-Karabakh is fighting against. Additionally, the post calls for the international community to do everything possible to help stop the military actions and protect global peace and security.	30,943	- the demolition of Lachin corridor's posts. This would allow for the safe passage of people and goods between Armenia and Azerbaijan, and would be a step towards a lasting peace in the region	10,331
- a strong commitment to peace and a strong Artsakh. The hashtag #Wantpeace implies a desire for peace, while the hashtag #artsakhstrong implies a need for a strong Artsakh in order to achieve peace.	30,266	- the presence of a Russian peacekeeping contingent to monitor the situation, an end to Armenian exploitation of mineral deposits, and an end to the regime that is allowing excavations in the Demolic and Gizbulag fields.	9,041
- a call for action and peace from the OSCE, Vladimir Putin, Emmanuel Macron, and Donald Trump. The post also calls for peace for Armenian people in both Artsakh and Armenia.	29,631	- the cessation of fire opened by Armenian armed groups, as well as the prevention of further casualties of soldiers.	7,533
- keeping children away from the reality of the war, praying for the soldiers who are fighting for the country, and showing support for the people of Artsakh.	23,294	- are that the Azerbaijani state and armed forces provide peace and security, and that the people of Azerbaijan live in comfort, peace, tranquility, and safety. The post also suggests that Azerbaijan is rapidly developing and that all tasks ahead will be accomplished.	7,435
- uniting together as a family, standing up to the enemy, and continuing the work of Nzhdeh, Vazgen, Monte, and Hetan Gago. The post also mentions building a school, cultivating a garden, and planting a tree as a way to show that the people of Artsakh or Armenia are committed to peace.	12,406	- honoring the memory of the martyrs who died in the Garakend terror, recognizing the sacrifices made by the people of Azerbaijan, and demanding peace instead of war.	5,735
- an end to Azerbaijani violations of the ceasefire, increased awareness of the conflict, and recognition of the human lives affected by the conflict regardless of the size of the country or its natural resources.	11,529	- the removal of Russian troops from the South Caucasus, the prevention of any provocations, and the establishment of a peacekeeping status for the region.	5,531
- following official information, being aware of the necessary notes to inform the population about air alarm, and following the simplest rules of conduct during air alarm.	8,227	- Armenia must play with fire and must not strike for Azerbaijani land. The post also states that Russian peacekeepers are only temporary and that if anyone attacks a waist to someone, they will still face tragedy.	4,422
- for the Patriarch of All Armenians to bless the four sides of the world, asking the Lord for fertility and peace, and then to bless the branches of willow.	6,638	- providing humanitarian aid to the Armenian residents, providing cigarettes to the Armenian resident of Karabakh, and sending a protest to Khankendi in the house of the peaceful Armenian.	4,408
- for the people to come together and use their collective power and strength to achieve victory. The hashtags #shushi and #wewillwin indicate that the people are determined to fight for their cause and will not give up until they have achieved their goal.	5,844	- the withdrawal of Russian "peacekeeping" forces from the Lachin corridor, and the protection of Azerbaijani citizens from being crushed by these forces.	4,361
- prayers for the Lord to guard the soldiers, and for the borders to be firmly protected. The post also expresses gratitude to the soldiers for their service in protecting the borders.	5,365	- the prevention of illegal enterprises in Agarda by Russian peacekeeping forces, talks between Azerbaijani representatives and the commander of the Russian peacekeeping forces, and the inspection of a mine in Aggharda under the command of Azerbaijani representatives of the peacekeeping forces.	4,285
- the promotion of world peace and the recognition of the rights of Armenians.	5,129	- ending the blockade of the Karabakh economic region as "Nagorno-Karabakh territory" and expressing the names of Azerbaijani settlements in accordance with official documents. Additionally, the post calls for the Russian peacekeeping contingent in the territory of the Republic of Azerbaijan to express the names of Azerbaijani settlements in accordance with official documents.	3,571
- for there to be peace in the Armenian sky.	4,966	- the presence of international guarantees for the security and rights of Nagorno-Karabakh Armenians, and an extension of the term of peacekeepers in the region. For Azerbaijan, the conditions for peace providing transport connection between the Western regions of Azerbaijan and Nakhchivan, and fulfilling the obligations of the Lachin corridor.	3,446
- honoring the memory of Artavazd, a 10-year-old soldier who died in Jayrval while bringing bread to his brothers in the trench through the fire. The post also calls for eternal glory to be given to Artavazd and for people to humble themselves in his memory.	4,728	- the release of Karabakh peacekeepers captured in Ukraine, and the acceptance of proposals from the Ukrainian Foreign Minister by Russian Foreign Minister Lavrov. Additionally, sanctions on Roman Abramovich may be necessary for a peaceful resolution.	3,394
- the imposition of sanctions on Azerbaijan and Turkey, and the recognition of Armenia's right to peace.	4,310	- the Russian peacekeepers and police refraining from using violence, throwing gas, and beating people. In addition, the Azerbaijani police should not use special violence or beat women.	2,716
- defeating the opponent with all possible means, destroying their military infrastructure, expanding the security zone, and imposing the final peace. The post also emphasizes the need for unity and solidarity among the Armenian people in order to achieve victory.	4,112	- recognizing the ugly games that have been played in the region, as well as having conversations with experts such as Alya Yagublu to discuss the most relevant problems. Additionally, the military and peace policies must be taken into account in order to ensure a peaceful resolution.	2,622
- ensuring the security of the homeland and national state interests, protecting the integrity of the homeland, and creating a culture of military art, military science, technology, military and military-patriotic education and morality. Additionally, the post emphasizes the importance of honoring heroes and martyrs and creating a free and happy Armenian people.	3,234	- recognizing the responsibility of the Russian leadership for the current conflict, honoring the martyrs and wounded servicemen, and ensuring that the people of the region are not deceived.	2,469
- recognition of Artsakh's independence, strengthening of the commitment to ensure that Artsakh's independence will receive the recognition it deserves, and the heroic people of Artsakh continuing to chart their own course despite the immense hardships and unending Turkish-Azerbaijani aggression.	3,081	- are for Armenia to withdraw from the occupied territories. Additionally, the post states that there is no such race as Azeri, and that Azerbaijan is made up of Turks.	2,068
- honoring the memory of the heroes martyred in the Artsakh war and providing peace to their souls.	3,034	- mobilizing people from all over the world to help those affected by the tragedy, putting politics aside in order to prioritize human life, and recognizing that human life is superior to everything else.	2,001
- for the soldiers to successfully complete their mission on the front lines and return victorious. The post also implies that the mothers of Armenia must accept the reality that their children must fight against the terrorists to ensure peace for other mothers' children.	3,017	- the presence of Turkish servicemen as peacekeepers, the agreement of Putin, Aliyev, and Pashkhan to the ceasefire agreement dated November 9, 2020, and the discussion of opportunities and risks for Turkey.	1,822
- that God should be respected and honored, and that soldiers should be protected and safeguarded.	2,818	- the removal of Russian forces from the region, the prevention of weapons being transported to Karabakh, and the establishment of a checkpoint on the Lachin Road.	1,768
- the international community stepping up to condemn Azerbaijan's actions, sanctioning Azerbaijan, and recognizing Artsakh's sovereignty.	2,686	- the liberation of historical lands from enemy occupation, the recognition of territorial integrity and the establishment of sovereignty, and the celebration of the 20th anniversary of Shusha. Additionally, the post mentions the Heydar Aliyev Foundation's efforts to promote peace in the region.	1,607
- ric answer.	2,602	- the construction of new transport communications connecting the Nakhchivan Autonomous Republic with the consent of the parties, the creation of two corridors, the establishment of a free-sided new cooperation platform in the region, and the unification of Azerbaijan with the Nakhchivan Autonomous Republic. Additionally, the post suggests that cooperation should develop along with security measures in order to achieve long-term peace in the region.	1,474
- peaccan be achieved in 2023, and that it will involve strong Armenians, such as Nazenihovhanniy. It also suggests that the peace will be achieved through love and understanding	2,521	- the return of the occupied regions to Azerbaijan, the deployment of peacekeepers, and the protection of the rights of Azerbaijani citizens who were forced to flee their homes. Additionally, the post implies that the Armenian citizens who were forced to flee their homes should be given a safe passage and not be subjected to violence.	1,008
- Azerbaijan ceasing its aggression against the two countries, and the international community condemning Azerbaijan's actions and supporting the Art of Armenian and Middle Eastern Cooking.	2,231	- a revival of conventional peace and a year of peace. This could involve a ceasefire, negotiations, and the implementation of a peace agreement.	654
- an end to Azerbaijan's war crimes, an end to their invasion and violation of the territorial integrity of the Republic of Armenia, and an end to their unhinged war crimes which are an affront to international law and the entire world.	2,068	- celebrating Novruz holiday with joy and enthusiasm, commemorating martyrs who fought for the protection of the winning victory, and supporting the families of veterans who suffered. The post also promotes peace, reconciliation, solidarity, and good neighborhood values.	590
- the need for accountability measures to be implemented along the border, the State Department to condemn Azerbaijan's aggression, and for U.S. Senators and Representatives to condemn Azerbaijan's aggression and support the FY 2021 NDAA and Foreign Aid Bills which would provide Armenia with sales assistance.	2,064	- the promotion of love and understanding between the two sides, as well as the recognition of the Aliaga Unit as a legitimate entity.	517
- calling lines with the right names, stopping Azerbaijan aggression, stopping Turkey aggression, and defending Artsakh. The post also calls for victory and for the victory to be won.	2,060	- are that President Aliyev does not do stubborn and that the peace agreement is put back on the table.	290
- for Russian peacekeepers to open the Lachin corridor and for the main road between Armenia and Artsakh to be opened.	1,989	- strengthening the role of national parliaments in the promotion of peace and sustainable development, strengthening Azerbaijan's just position in the international arena, and increasing trust and confidence in the international arena.	253
- self-determination, reunification, and the right to live on their native land. The post also calls for Azerbaijan to stop throwing awful things at them and for the international community to recognize Artsakh's independence.	1,962	- honoring the heroism of the martyrs who died in the battlefield, recognizing the bravery of President Ilham Aliyev, and remembering the martyrs who have died in the war. Additionally, the post calls for prayers for the martyrs and for their families.	239
- the promotion of human rights, the protection of cultural heritage, and the development of economic and social opportunities for all citizens. Additionally, the post suggests that the Armenian world should be unified and that the people should be empowered to make decisions that will benefit their communities.	1,851	- all military operations being halted, Agdam being returned to Azerbaijan by November 20, 2020, Russia's peacekeepers being placed along the line of contact along the Lachin corridor, a peace center being established to control the ceasefire, Armenia's connection to Nagorno-Karabakh being continued to Armenia, Kalbajar being returned by November 15, and the Lachin being returned by November 15, IDPs being fully returned.	228
- the international community restraining and punishing Azerbaijan, reducing the greatest danger on the head of the Armenian people, and supporting the case with more than just words.	1,797	- for Armenia to accept the resolution of the Nagorno-Karabakh conflict, to establish normal relations with their neighbors, and to establish a working group on delimitation to prepare for a peace agreement.	177
- denouncing the aggressions of Azerbaijan, recognizing the responsibility for the 1915 genocide, and staying neutral when civilians are attacked. Additionally, the post emphasizes the importance of France in supporting Armenia and Artsakh, and calls for peace to be the ultimate goal.	1,746	- the progress of the trilateral agreement, the regulation of stability in the region, the restoration of peace, the recovery and development of economic and trade relations, and the bilateral meeting of Azerbaijani and Armenian leaders in Brussels.	152
- understanding the difficulties that have been experienced together, never going through such pain again, and having love and peace in everyone's families.	1,681	- the legitimization of the new war, the opening of the border delimitation, the opening of regional communications, dialogue between Armenia and Azerbaijan, the signing of a document on the construction of the railway by Azerbaijan, and the normalization of relations between Turkey and Armenia.	133
- the condemnation of Azerbaijan's attack against Armenia by Senator Ed Markey (D-MA), the respect of the aspirations of the Armenian people of Nagorno Karabakh by Azerbaijan and Turkey, and the de-escalation of the conflict immediately. Additionally, the post encourages people to contact their U.S. Senators and Representatives to speak against Aliyev's aggression and support peace initiatives, such as the HALO Trust's Artsakh de-mining program.	1,650	- the removal of Russian equipment from the temporary responsibility zone of peacekeepers from the Karabakh region, as well as the exclusive use of the Lachin corridor.	124
- joining the Homeland Party, ceding territories, and uniting the people of both countries.	1,532	- the cessation of illegal military transportation for illegal Armenian units, the cessation of movement of colon, and the fulfillment of duties by the Russian peacekeeping contingent in the implementation of a trilateral statement.	88
- joining the Homeland Party, ceding territories, and uniting the people of both countries.	1,532	- the investigation of the incident with the participation of representatives of the Ministry of Defense of the Republic of Azerbaijan and the leadership of the peacekeeping of the Russian Federation, as well as the prevention of possible provocations in the region in accordance with the laws of Azerbaijan.	79
- for the world to recognize the Armenian soldier and for the Armenian people to remain strong in their fight for Artsakh.	1,504	- The French peacekeepers are creating conditions for provocateurs in order to promote peace in Nagorno-Karabakh or Azerbaijan. This could provide a safe environment for negotiations, monitoring the situation on the ground, and ensuring that all parties involved are abiding by the terms of any agreements. Additionally, the peacekeepers may be working to build trust between the two sides and to create a dialogue that can lead to a lasting peace.	75
- faith, strength, and reliance on God. The post implies that the Armenian soldier must have faith, strength, and trust in God in order to achieve peace.	1,439	- are for the Armenian side to sign a peace agreement with Azerbaijan on the basis of five basic principles that have been presented by the Azerbaijani side and recognized by the international community.	72
- the repair of the gas pipeline from Armenia to Artsakh, negotiations between Russian peacekeepers and Azerbaijani forces to start the repair work, and the reconstruction of hydroelectric power stations that have been lost due to the war.	1,294	- the ignition of bonfires in the dormitory of parasites in Garabag. This suggests that the post is calling for an end to the conflict in the region and for peace to be established.	56
- that it is blessed by the Lord and mercy, and that it is good and peaceful.	1,226	- recognizing the territorial integrity of Azerbaijan, supporting the establishment of peace and tranquility in the region, and preventing the expansion of destructive activities of those who promote separation and terrorism in the region.	47
- an end to the violence and conflict in the region, as well as recognition of the rights of the Armenian people and Armenia. Additionally, the post calls for justice and accountability for those responsible for the violence and conflict in the region.	1,162	- the analysis of the issues around Karabakh, testimony from Putin and Ilham Aliyev, and the establishment of peace in the region.	41
- wishing for a holiday and peace of soul, as well as praying for peace.	1,155	- an end to Armenian provocations, increased awareness of the situation, and the deployment of peacekeepers on September 2.	39
- the evaluation of international mechanisms of sanctions and punitive measures, reaffirming the earlier position of the Republic of Armenia, launching international containment military escalation, and preventing ethnic cleansing in the region.	1,142	- are that Russian peacekeepers are temporarily located there, and that the November 10 statement of the November 10 is accepted.	39
- de-escalating hostilities, returning prisoners of war, and resolving the situation peacefully. The post also calls for the global community to take action to protect Armenian human rights and prevent Azerbaijan from committing war crimes and attempting to wipe out Armenia's land and people.	1,125	- the removal of mines from civilian areas, cultural and historical monuments, and small areas, as well as the accuracy of mine formulations. Additionally, the post calls on citizens to be responsible and attentive, avoiding illegal visits and leaving illegal visits.	39

- the United States playing a "crucial" role in preventing further escalation of the attacks, and for the international community to follow America's lead. Armenia is also ready for diplomatic engagement, but not under the threat of violence, which Azerbaijan desires.	1,112	- the presence of a Russian peacekeeping contingent to protect military cargo for illegal Armenian armed groups, as well as the movement of military columns to ensure the military positions of the Armenians.	27
- the release of all Armenian prisoners of war, an end to Azerbaijani aggression, and an acknowledgement of the innocence of the Armenian people. The post also calls for the global community to take action and speak out against the injustices faced by the Armenian people.	1,042	- normalization of relations between Armenia and Azerbaijan, opening of the borders, revival of trade, and signing of a peace agreement.	23
- the cessation of Azerbaijani military aggression, such as setting fire to grassy areas and shooting at Armenian firefighters, and the notification of the Russian Peacekeeping Contingent's Command on ceasefire violations.	1,034	- stopping Armenian aggression, not believing Armenian claims, and working together to win the development war.	22
- showing support for the soldiers, stopping aggression from Azerbaijan and Turkey, and showing love and pride for Armenia.	1,021	- the presence of Russian peacekeepers in the region, as well as the recognition of Shusha, Barabagazbajan, and Kirabakhs-Azerbaijan as part of Azerbaijan. Additionally, the post calls for the recognition of Frazardaqashkoma as part of Azerbaijan.	20
- sanctions against Azerbaijan, an end to the blockade of gas to Artsakh, and an end to the manufacturing of a humanitarian crisis by Azerbaijan in order to force further concessions.	1,016	- the creation of the Shakeni-Lachin roads to move cars belonging to Russian peacekeepers.	12
- praying for peace, honoring the martyrs, strengthening faith in God, uniting the Armenian people, and protecting the boundaries of the Armenian country with a powerful cross.	1,004	- the discussion of the terms of the Russian peacekeeping areas in the territories, the organization and monitoring of the territories by experts, and the public being informed of the results of the talks.	12
- the creation of the blockade of Artsakh by Azerbaijan, the restoration of gas and food supplies to Artsakh, and the recognition of the right of over 120,000 Indigenous Armenians living in Artsakh.	995	- is that Prime Minister Pashinyan is willing to sign a peace agreement with Azerbaijan.	11
- discovering missing people, restoring the wounded and helping them get new professions, increasing the development pace, strengthening the economy, providing quality education, and ensuring the security of the borders.	987	- the release of the Karabakh peacekeepers who were captured in Ukraine, as seen in the video.	10
- to help the Armenian people, nothing can be the role of helping, and nothing for help. The post also emphasizes the need to learn from the peacefulness of the crying nation and to cause peace, rather than beg for it.	983	- the severing of the Russian army and pogons from the region.	10
- all primary mediators, such as Russia, the European Union, France, and the United States, finding a way to achieve peace without Armenia surrendering its land. Additionally, continued attention by international actors with significant influence in Baku and Yerevan is necessary in order to curtail further violence.	956	- the Azerbaijani Army positions should not be fired upon by illegal Armenian armed groups, and that there should be no casualties among the staff of the Azerbaijani Army.	8
- the withdrawal of all foreign forces from the region, the establishment of a lasting ceasefire, the return of all displaced persons to their homes, and the recognition of the right of the people of Artsakh to self-determination. Additionally, the post calls for the international community to recognize the right of the people of Artsakh to self-determination and to support the efforts of the Armenian people to achieve a lasting peace.	921	- the movement of peacekeepers in the Khanekendi-Lachin road, the operation of 6 more cars belonging to Russian peacekeepers, and the unimpeded movement of vehicles in both directions. Additionally, the post mentions a protest in Khanekendi-Lachin that has been going on for 23 days, suggesting that the people of Nagorno-Karabakh are still seeking peace.	8
- fighting for the homeland, building good, and defending the country from those who do not want to bring peace. The post also calls for unity among Armenians in Armenia and the Diaspora in order to achieve the goal of peace.	878	- the opening of the Lachin corridor, the normalization of relations between Armenia and Azerbaijan, the protection of the legal and security of the population of Nagorno-Karabakh, and the activities of the European Union in Armenia. Additionally, Russia is supportive of the continuation of the talks on the basis of a statement signed in a tripartite on November 10, 2020.	7
- preventing and remedying the cycle of violence and hatred against the Armenian people, respecting the ceasefire, and taking serious note of Azerbaijan's aggressive behavior. Additionally, global organizations must take action to ensure that Azerbaijan stops its hostile acts.	852	- are that peacekeepers' cars should be able to move unimpeded in the Khanekendi road.	6
- the exclusion of ceasefire violations, active steps taken by the OSCE Minsk Group Co-Chair States to hold the Azerbaijani accountable, and the prevention of further incidents that could result in casualties or damage to property. Additionally, the post calls for peaceful coexistence and the rejection of Azerbaijani-Armenian policies.	797	- the contribution of Azerbaijan's partnership for Peace and the country's multinational NATO missions in Afghanistan, as well as the Shusha Declaration, which is primarily the work of Azerbaijan and Turkey.	4
- respect for all children and a peaceful sky.	786	- allowing trips to Karabakh only with permission from Azerbaijan, as Karabakh is part of Azerbaijan.	3
- the elimination of Artsakh as a self-determined republic for Azerbaijan, the digestion of the genocide for Turkey, and the recognition of Syunik as a district serving the Turkish Azerbaijan way.	778	- Armenia signing a peace agreement for two months and the two countries maintaining peace for two years.	3
- Armenia should take a more proactive approach to foreign policy in order to ensure peace in the region. It also suggests that Armenia should learn from the West's management of the situation during the war in order to ensure a lasting peace. The post also calls for recognition of Artsakh and for the international community to support Armenia in its efforts to achieve peace.	761	- that the delimitation of the border should be based on international conditions and that the representatives of the Armenian army that has been rooted in Karabakh should remain under these conditions. Additionally, Armenia villages should be visible in the region.	3
- are that it should be blessed by the Lord and have His mercy, and that it should be good and peaceful.	748	- the cessation of the movement of military car equipment carrying the combat positions of illegal Armenian armed groups, compliance with the provisions of the trilateral statement, and the avoidance of creating tensions in the region.	3
- recognizing the atrocities committed against Armenians in Baku, Shushi, Sungat, Prince Varanda and Karvachar, and ensuring that Azerbaijan's children are not taught to hate Armenians. Additionally, the post implies that Azerbaijanis should not be allowed to sell weapons in Yerevan.	735	- are that Russian peacekeepers protect Armenian separatists.	2
- Praying for peace, expressing love for the homeland and borders, and invoking Jesus for protection.	733	- mutual recognition and respect, adherence to international law and the territorial integrity of Azerbaijan, and the cessation of pro-Armenian biased and one-sided positions.	2
- hing new every day. The post also emphasizes the need to use a language of strength to confront the enemy.	710	- the cessation of fire from the positions of illegal Armenian armed groups in Azerbaijan, as well as the positions of ASSUCAR in the Galakcar region of Basakcar region. In addition, adequate response measures must be taken by the sections mentioned in the post.	2
- the US revoking open trade to Azerbaijan, allowing Armenia to have unhindered trade with Central Asia to the Chinese border, and allowing beneficial trade to Armenia from Turkey or the UK without its territory being bisected.	704	- the transportation of weapons to the Responsibility Zone of peacekeepers by the Lachin corridor.	2
- bringing perpetrators of war crimes and other atrocities to justice, ensuring accountability for war crimes and other atrocities, and involving international authorities to help resolve ongoing conflicts and ensure peace.	692	- the appointment of a new commander of Russian peacekeepers	1
- calls for the commemoration of the 100th anniversary of the Armenian Genocide and honoring those who lost their lives, as well as for the promotion of peaceand Armenia. It also calls for the keeping of promises and the preservation of Armenian culture and heritage	679	- the approval of the Shusha Declaration, which is of historical importance, and the restoration of the territorial integrity of Azerbaijan and the release of its lands from occupation. The post also mentions the strengthening of the Azerbaijani-Turkish strategic alliance and the expansion and diversification of cooperation between the two countries.	1
- recognition of the Armenian Genocide, acknowledgement of the suffering of the Armenian people, and recognition of the Pope's visit to Armenia in 2016. Additionally, the post celebrates the achievements of Eric Eraslan, an Armenian producer of the documentary "Francesco," which follows the life of Pope Francis. This suggests that the post is advocating for peace through recognition of the Armenian Genocide and the Pope's visit to Armenia.	675	- the government's impairment, an increase in communal expenses, the detention issue, Pashinyan's latest statements, the CSTO summit, Azerbaijani officials visiting Turkey, trainings, and the issue of Russian peacekeepers.	1
- taking action before it is too late, saving lives, recognizing Karabakh, and stopping Azerbaijani aggression. The post also calls on various world leaders and organizations to take action, such as the US Secretary of State, the OSCE, the President of the United States, French President Emmanuel Macron, the United Nations, Canadian Prime Minister Justin Trudeau, US Senator Chuck Schumer, US Senate Majority Leader Mitch McConnell, and the Helsinki Commission.	674	- the presence of peacekeepers and the gathering of additional vibrant forces to the rally on Shusha-Khankendi road.	1
- would involve the world recognizing the hero or heroes who have been working to bring about peace in the region.	669
- promoting demographic growth through various programs, and ensuring a carefree childhood for all children. The post also suggests that the newborns should become the symbol of the homeland's survival and peace.	660	- the presence of peacekeepers to bring voters to the area and to ensure that their voices are heard.	1
- are peace to be present in the Armenian world.	583	- the barrier-free movement of peacekeepers and ICRC cars in Khanekendi. This would allow for the safe and unhindered passage of personnel and resources to the region, which is essential for the maintenance of peace and stability.	0
- calls for the Azerbaijani forces to adhere to the ceasefire regime and for the Russian peacekeeping contingents to take measures to ensure that Azerbaijanis side adheres to the ceasefire. It also calls for the Azerbaijani media to stop spreading misinformation about the situation in Artsakh. The post also calls for the people of Artsakh to be allowed to remain in their homes and for the constant terror campaign by Azerbaijan to be stopped.	571	- the burial of mines in Garegin Khanekendi by the II, and the presence of Russian peacekeepers.	0
- the world unequivocally rejecting and ruling out the repetition of genocides, the advanced world officially recognizing the Armenian Genocide and condemning the victims of the Genocide, and the Turkish government listening to the West representing one-third of the world's public opinion.	556	- the cessation of looting by Russian peacekeepers and the investigation of any alleged violations of international law.	0
- withdrawing Turkish troops from Northern Syria, repatriating Syrian detainees who have been transferred to Turkey, ceasing the presence of Kurdish Syrians in violation of Turkey's international obligations, and ceasing the use of Syrian mercenaries in conflicts in Libya and Artsakh in violation of international law.	532
- recognizing Artsakh, sanctioning Turkey, stopping Azerbaijani aggression, stopping Alivew and Erdogan, strengthening Artsakh, stopping the new genocide, stopping Turkish terrorism, and recognizing Artsakh as part of Armenia.	526	- the change of the commander of the Russian peacekeepers in Karabakh. The new commander has not yet been identified.	0
- recognizing Artsakh as a state, respecting the sovereignty of Artsakh and Armenia, and engaging in dialogue and negotiations through the OSCE to resolve the conflict. Additionally, the post calls for an end to aggression and violence from Azerbaijan.	525
- President Saragon wishing for Artsakh to have peaceful peace, and for its brave and honorable children to have a well-being and a worthy life on their ancestral sacred soil. Additionally, the post mentions the Victory of the May Throat, the Formation of the Artsakh Defense Army, and the Liberation Day of the Artsakh Defense Army as conditions for peace to be met in Artsakh and Armenia.	505	- the deployment of Azerbaijani servicemen in Lachin, the protection of the Azerbaijani army in Lachin and the surrounding areas, the detention of Lachin, the city of Lachin, Zabukh and Sus villages of Lachin, and the measures to be held in both Yerevan and Khanekendi.	0
- strengthening the homeland, building a peaceful and strong Armenia, standing by the soldier and fighting for the entire Armenian world, and joining the Homeland Party.	474	- the presence of Russian peacekeepers and the prevention of looting in Lachin.	0
- the exchange of territories, prisoners, and the geopolitical centers between Armenia and Iran, as well as additional opportunities for overcoming facilitated challenges.	465	- the return of Armenian centuries to Kalbajar and Lachin, and the signing of a Peace Agreement as an alternative to Zaur Gariboglu.	0
- recognizing Artsakh, imposing sanctions on Turkey, stopping Ali Yev, stopping Erdogan and the Turkish government, and stopping any new genocide against Armenians.	464	- the safe passage of peacekeepers through the Khanekendi-Lachin Road.	0
- strengthening the faith of the people in God, restoring the spiritual-cultural heritage left by ancestors, and having the power of the Patriarchal prayers to bring peace, prosperity, and survivors.	454
- strengthening the faith of the people in God, restoring the spiritual-cultural heritage left by ancestors, and having the power of the Patriarchal prayers to bring peace, prosperity, and survivors.	452	- the withdrawal of Armenian forces from the region, the return of internally displaced persons, the restoration of Azerbaijani sovereignty over the region, and the establishment of a lasting peace between the two countries.	0
- being able to stop and enjoy the moment in difficult and seemingly unsolvable situations, as well as joining the Homeland Party and uniting with fellow compatriots.	403	- the withdrawal of Armenian militants, the return of Lachin Horish to Azerbaijan, and the deployment of peacekeeping forces in the region.	0
- for Europe to use its leverage in negotiations with Azerbaijan to impose a civilized behavior in the Caucasus, and to refuse to provide gas to a state that treats its neighbors as "dogs", glorifies war criminals, tortures prisoners of war, slaughters peaceful shepherds, and threatens to annihilate the Armenian population of Artsakh.	379	- the withdrawal of Russian forces from Karabakh, the launch of anti-terrorist operations in the region, and the demonstration of the effectiveness of Russian weapons in bringing peace to the region.	0
- are for the Artsakh Defense Army to successfully push back any attempts by Azerbaijan's Armed Forces to advance into Artsakh, and for the Russian Peacekeeping Contingents to be informed of any incidents.	401	- would be for the peace agreement to not any provisions on Karabakh.	0
- mutual respect, understanding, and compromise between all parties involved. Additionally, the post implies that all parties must be willing to work together to create a lasting peace.	399
- an educated and patriotic generation, the promotion of the Homeland Party, and the promotion of Tigranarakantsyan.	339
- reaffirming the commitment to the United States to help Armenia succeed as a democratic and independent state, which coexists peacefully with its neighbors, and promoting Armenia's success as a democratic and independent state, at peace with its neighbors.	339
- global attention to the plight of the Armenian people, understanding of the suffering Armenians endured, and recognition of the Armenian Genocide.	339
- are that Artsakh must remain an integral part of Armenia. The post also implies that the people of Artsakh and Armenia must stand together in solidarity to ensure that Artsakh remains an integral part of Armenia.	339
- stopping Azerbaijani aggression, regarding Artsakh as part of Armenia, and strengthening Armenia's position. The post also calls for the people of Artsakh and for the people to win the peace.	339
- rededicating the continued threats to Armenia and Artsakh, and doing everything possible to bring liberation and peace to Armenian brothers and sisters abroad.	313
- educating children about Artsakh, advocating for Artsakh, and promoting peace in Artsakh. The post also encourages people to take a few minutes to enjoy a primer video on Artsakh and to show solidarity with Artsakh during Artsakh Solidarity Week.	298
- the deployment of an unarmed civilian observer mission by the European Union, the provision of flexible mandate, diplomatic support, and resources to the observers, and the reprimanding of any provocations from Azerbaijan. Additionally, the post suggests that Russia should focus on Ukraine and the EU should take a role in mediating between Armenia and Azerbaijan.	286
- continuing to believe and dream, combining hope and action for a better future, and spreading love and peace. The post also encourages viewers to watch the event hosted by Teach For Armenia, which is a call to continue dreaming and planting hope for the future.	273
- the cessation of anti-Armenian and enemies speeches by the President of the Republic of Azerbaijan, the prevention of human rights violations, and the elimination of existing violations. Additionally, the post suggests that the Human Rights Defender's Office should prioritize materials in Azerbaijan in order to document evidence of hostility and anti-Armenian policy with high state patronage.	272
- recognizing Artsakh, stopping Azerbaijani aggression, stopping terrorism, and achieving peace for Armenian territories.	270
- recognizing the homeland of Tigranarakantsyan and Yerevan, as well as recognizing Artsakh and Armenia as independent countries.	259
- for Azerbaijan to stop attacking Armenian positions in Artsakh, to stop evading sanctions against Russia, and to stop its oppressive behavior towards Armenians. Additionally, the post calls for sanctions to be imposed on Azerbaijan for its actions.	230
- the U.S. Congress having the last word on the issue of the State Department pulling the Artsakh Humanitarian Demining Program, and the continued support of demining assistance to Artsakh. Additionally, the post calls for an end to the war-games being conducted by Azerbaijan and for the U.S. to stop sending over $100 million in security assistance to Azerbaijan.	228
- calls for God's mercy and forgiveness, and for the Holy Martyrs of the Armenian Genocide to intercede on behalf of the people of Artsakh and Armenia. It also calls for the people to glorify God with the Father and the Holy Spirit, and to show love and kindness to all of God's creations. These conditions for peace suggest that the people of Artsakh and Armenia should strive to live in harmony with each other and with God, and to show respect and compassion for all.	214

- diagnosing the cause of the conflict, understanding the historical implications of Turkey's involvement, and taking action to stop Azerbaijani aggression. Prime Minister Pashinyan also stresses the importance of achieving a peaceful solution.
- stopping Azerbaijani aggression, stopping terrorism, and recognizing the rights of the people of Artsakh or Armenia.
- praying to the Lord for His protective blessing, security and well-being of the people, and strength and guidance through this time of trial. The post also calls for consolation of those who grieve and remembrance of those who sacrificed their lives.
- honoring the memory of Monte Melkonian, who is credited for major military victories against Azerbaijan, and securing a place for all Armenians to call home. Additionally, the post calls for the liberation of Artsakh and Kelbajar, which are currently illegally occupied by Azerbaijan.
- the presence of Russian peacekeepers, Armenian army positions, and the walls of Amaras on the Armenian-Azerbaijani border in the Martuni region. Additionally, the post encourages people to follow the news and updates from the region on social media platforms such as Telegram, Twitter, and Instagram.
- the presence of doves, the absence of conflict, and the promotion of the #OrvalPhoto hashtag, which is a hashtag used to promote the arts and culture of Artsakh. Additionally, the post encourages the use of the hashtags #ArtsakhUnderBlockade, #RoadToLife, and #Sepnakert, which are all related to the ongoing conflict in the region and the need for peace.
- the recognition of Artsakh's independence, the protection of Armenian prisoners-of-war, the cessation of violence against peaceful settlements, and the realization of the people's right to self-determination.
- recognizing Artsakh as a state, promoting peace through the OSCE, and stopping aggression from Azerbaijan.
- are that all wars must be based only on the need to maintain and establish peace, and that peace is one of the most important conditions for sustainable development.
- as that all wars must be based only on the need to maintain and establish peace, and that peace is one of the most important conditions for sustainable development.
- an end to Azerbaijan's blockade of Artsakh, an end to Azerbaijan's attempts to ethnically cleanse Artsakh, and an end to the humanitarian crisis caused by the blockade.
- stopping Azerbaijani aggression and ending Armenophobia. The post also calls for Canada to take action to ensure that the Armenian community of Vancouver is able to demonstrate peacefully.
- by listening to the performance of "Artsakh" work, the "Tagaran" ensemble of ancient music with Marianna Georgyan's accompaniment. The post also implies that peace can be achieved by celebrating the Day of the Artsakh Republic.
- stopping Azerbaijani aggression, recognizing Artsakh, and stopping President Erdogan and Aliyev's actions. The post also calls for speaking up and not being silent in order to ensure peace for Armenians.
- stopping the war, recognizing Artsakh, and stopping the aggression of Azerbaijan, Turkey, and Azerbaijan's president, Ilham Aliyev. The post also calls for the preservation of the beautiful land and its people, and for the development of the region in peace.
- for people to join together to raise awareness and stand in solidarity with the people of Artsakh, and to support the efforts for peace in the region.
- showing solidarity with Artsakh, supporting the victims of the victorious march, and stopping aggression from Azerbaijan.
- calls for the rejection of the Madrid Principles, which demand upfront and irrevocable strategic concessions of territory and security from Artsakh in return for vague and easily reversible paper promises from the war-mongering Aliyev regime. The post also calls for the United States and other OSCE Minsk Group Co-Chair countries to drop the Madrid Principles and pursue a durable, democracy-based resolution to the outstanding status and security issues between Artsakh and Azerbaijan.
- for the United States and other OSCE Minsk Group Co-Chair countries to drop the Madrid Principles and pursue a durable, democracy-based resolution to the outstanding status and security issues between Artsakh and Azerbaijan.
- rejecting the Madrid Principles, which demand upfront and irrevocable strategic concessions of territory and security from Artsakh in return for vague and easily reversible paper promises from the war-mongering Aliyev regime. The post also calls for pursuing a durable, democracy-based resolution to the outstanding status and security issues between Artsakh and Azerbaijan.
- restoring independence and supporting the just demands of the people of Nagorno-Karabakh.
- Canada and the international community remaining vigilant, Azerbaijan being restrained, and Canada's Foreign Affairs Canada François-Philippe Champagne and Canada in Turkey taking action.
- recognizing Armenia, stopping Azerbaijani aggression, stopping Turkish aggression, and sanctioning Turkey.
- upholding the principle of self-determination, enshrined in the Helsinki Final Act, and recognizing the free will of the people of Artsakh or Armenia, rather than allowing a family-run petro-dictatorship like Azerbaijan to dictate the terms of peace.
- providing financial support to families of fallen and injured soldiers, providing toys and other items to children who have lost their fathers, and continuing to show love and support for those in need. Additionally, the post encourages prayer for peace and strength for those affected by the war.
- for people to watch the Artsakh 101 - Primer Video and share it using the hashtags #artsakhsolidarityweek, #artsakhpeace, #artsakhstrong, and #artsakhwomans. Additionally, the post encourages people to support the Armenian National Committee of Canada's Artsakh Solidarity Week.
- stopping the aggression of Azerbaijan, Turkey, and Erdogan, recognizing Artsakh, and defending Armenia.
- honoring the brave heroes who sacrificed their lives to protect the homeland, donating to the Armenian Wounded Heroes Fund, and stopping the aggression of Azerbaijan, Turkey, and Erdogan.
- recognizing Artsakh, stopping aggression from Azerbaijan, Turkey, and Erdogan, and providing support and care for Armenian wounded heroes.
- a peaceful and clear sky, and hearts that have been captivated by the sunsets of Artsakh.
- raising donations for the Phontonthon 2021, which will take place from 18 to 21 November, and encouraging people to make donations either online or by phone. The post also encourages people to be #solidaire and #globalalathatathies in order to help bring peace to Artsakh and Armenia.
- recognition of the Armenian Genocide and a strong message of remembrance and condemnation from Bob Saroya, MP of Markham Unionville.
- an end to the glorification of violence and hatred towards Armenians, an end to the regime of Aliyev in Azerbaijan, and justice for Gurgen Margaryan.
- holding Azerbaijan and Turkey accountable for the damages caused in international courts, recognizing Artsakh, and sanctioning Turkey.
- establishing a prosperous life and achieving a decent peace.
- prayer, listening to the prayers of mothers, and bringing peace to the world.
- standing in solidarity with Artsakh and its people, recognizing the heroic people of Artsakh, and advocating for peace in the region.
- recognizing Artsakh, stopping the aggression of Azerbaijan and Turkey, and coming together in solidarity as Armenians.
- the international community providing support to maintain the ceasefire in Nagorno-Karabakh and providing humanitarian aid to those affected by the crisis. Additionally, Pope Francis also called for global efforts to combat the Coronavirus pandemic.
- the appointment of a new commander of peacekeeping forces in Artsakh, the presence of a Russian military base in Armenia, and the efforts of the Russian Federation to stabilize the military-political situation in the region. Additionally, the post mentions the effectiveness of the Russian teaching mission in Artsakh, suggesting that education and training are also important components of achieving peace in the region.
- Turkish President Recep Tayyip Erdogan speaking with CEO of SpaceX Elon Musk to discuss cooperation in sports, collaboration in telecommunications between the Turkish state, the country's space research institutions, and Musk's companies, and Musk's SpaceX delivering a Turkish communications satellite, Turkstat 5A, to orbit. Additionally, the founder of the Boring Company and Neuralink met with Erdogan during a Turkish visit to discuss cooperation between Tesla, SpaceX and Turkish firms.
- following @Armenians, donating to the Armenian Wounded Heroes Fund, and stopping aggression from Azerbaijan, Turkey, and their allies.
- the immediate release of Armenian prisoners of war and civilian captives held in Azerbaijan, as well as the recognition of Artsakh by the international community. Additionally, the post calls for the international community to exert pressure on Azerbaijan to ensure that the trilateral agreement signed on November 10 is upheld and that all prisoners of war are exchanged.
- national awakening and struggle for Armenians around the world, as well as recognition of the Karabakh Movement as a decisive moment in the history of the region. Additionally, the post calls for solidarity among Armenians around the world.
- for people to donate to the Armenian Wounded Heroes Fund, to follow @Armeniheroes, and to support and rehabilitate Our Heroes. Additionally, the post calls for an end to Azerbaijani and Turkish aggression, and for the recognition of Artsakh as an independent state.
- stopping Azerbaijani aggression, recognizing Artsakh, and defending Armenia. Additionally, the post calls for an end to Turkish aggression and for the support of Armenia.
- recognizing Artsakh, honoring the patriotism and courage of the younger generation, and honoring the memory of Shavash Muradyan, who sacrificed his life for the salvation of Artsakh.
- the recognition of the democratically elected government of Artsakh and its inclusion in the negotiations, as well as the implementation of the Reckless Madrid Principles. The post also encourages people to take action by visiting the ANCA website and participating in the March to Justice campaign.
- the recognition of the democratically elected government of Artsakh and the inclusion of this government in the negotiations.
- the cessation of the conflict with Azerbaijan, the recognition of the Nagorno-Karabakh Republic (NKR) as an independent state, and the recognition of Artsakh as an independent state. Additionally, the post calls for the recognition of Armenia's sovereignty.
- hope, faith, love, and peace. The post encourages people to fill their hearts with love and their houses with joy, which implies that peace is the ultimate goal.
- an end to the destruction of monuments, tombstones, and cross-stones by the Turks and Azerbaijani, as well as an end to the trolling of journalists on social media who speak out against such destruction.
- stopping the genocide of Christian populations, stopping Aliyev and Erdogan, and promoting peace for Armenian nations. Additionally, the post calls for Fachinian and Erevan, and for an end to the conflict between Armenia and Azerbaijan.
- praying for peace for the homeland, blessing and protecting the brave soldiers, granting them a safe return home, and resting the souls of the fallen heroes. Additionally, the post calls for the nation to stay united in prayer and for justice and peace to be fought for.
- the arrest of Commander Abgaryan for his role in sending 40 chemists to Kapan Indoer, and the Armenian government providing answers to the loved ones of the men who have not returned. Additionally, the post calls for an end to the armed attack on Artsakh and for the international community to recognize Artsakh and sanction Turkey.
- getting rid of the deep state in the subsoil of the state, effectively and comprehensively cooperation with the world, and real allies and relatives. Additionally, the post calls for Armenia to fight against its two enemies, Turkey and Azerbaijan, in order to ensure the continued physical existence of the Armenians in their land.
- offering of displaced people to their homes with the wish to live in peace and security, the protection of peacekeepers, and the resuming of schools.
- ① Adequately preventing violations of section 907 of the Freedom Support Act and other U.S. laws related to U.S. military aid to Azerbaijan; ② Holding U.S. manufacturers, the Turkish government, and private sector stakeholders responsible for violations of U.S. laws related to the discovery of U.S. parts in Turkish drones deployed by Azerbaijan; ③ Confronting Turkey or holding its leaders accountable for recruiting foreign terrorist fighters, including jihadis from Syria, to fight with Azerbaijani forces against Artsakh; ④ Confronting Azerbaijan or holding its leaders accountable for using cluster bombs, white phosphorous, and other prohibited munitions against Artsakh; ⑤ Confronting Azerbaijan or holding its leaders accountable for invading and occupying sovereign Armenian territory; ⑥ Adequately representing U.S. interests in a peaceful resolution of Artsakh-related status and security issues; ⑦ Providing adequate levels of humanitarian assistance to the over 100,000 Armenians ethnically-cleaned from their indigenous Artsakh homeland.
- praying to the Risen Lord for His protective blessing, praying for the security and well-being of the people, and praying for the sustenance of the Armenian society in America. Additionally, the post calls for the Lord to grant strength and lead the people through this time of trial, to console those who grieve, and to remember those who sacrificed their lives in His name.
- an end to the provocation of the Nagorno-Karabakh conflict in Moscow, as well as a stronger sense of solidarity among Armenians in the face of adversity. Additionally, the post calls for Armenian producers to be allowed back into the store 'Your Home' in Moscow, and for Azerbaijani products to be removed from the shelves.
- for the Armenian Army to remain strong and healthy, and for the people to remember and honor the sacrifices made by the soldiers. The post also expresses a wish for peace and happiness in the region.

- praying to the Risen Lord for His protective blessing, praying for the security and well-being of the people, praying for the sustenance of the society in America, and praying for the recovery of Fr. Mesrop Parsanyan. Additionally, the post calls for strength and guidance for the people of Artsakh and Armenia during this time of trial, and for consolation for those who grieve and remembrance for those who have sacrificed their lives in the Lord's name.	65
- recognizing Artsakh, sanctioning Turkey, and ending the use of weapons such as Smerch. Additionally, the post encourages people to support the Armenian Genocide recognition, live and love Armenia, and donate to the Armenia Fund.	64
- recognizing the 28th anniversary of the liberation of Shushi, celebrating the Office of Sacrament, and recognizing the contributions of Armenian students. The post also calls for solidarity with Artsakh and an end to aggression from Azerbaijan.	64
- the heroic act of a soldier laying on the fire to save another's life, and the flight of a figure known as the "king of dance" to bring peace from the heavens.	61
- the United States taking action to deter Azerbaijan from further unprovoked attacks, upholding the ceasefire agreement between Azerbaijan and Armenia, and preventing another mass humanitarian disaster.	61
- are for the people to celebrate and celebrate only victories, and for the teachers and generation to be brave and dedicated.	60
- calls of justice and unity from Archbishop Pargev Martirosyan, Primas of the Artsakh Diocese, and strength of life, courage, will, and faith.	59
- standing up against hatred, violence, and genocide, raising flags proudly, and fighting for truth, peace, and justice.	58
- the pictures of the war heroes on the streets of Kapan will serve as a reminder to Armenians to appreciate their soldiers and to remember the heroism of their soldiers. The post also calls for peaceand Armenia, suggesting that the conditions for peace should honor the bravery of the soldiers and recognizing the sacrifices they have made for their country.	57
- praying to the Risen Lord for His protective blessing, praying for the security and well-being of the people, praying for the sustenance of the Armenian society in America, and praying for the recovery of Fr. Mesrop Parsanyan from his auto accident. Additionally, the post calls for strength and guidance for the people of Artsakh and Armenia during this time of trial, and for consolation for those who grieve and remembrance for those who have sacrificed their lives in the name of the Lord.	56
- promoting health and well-being for all citizens, and showing respect and support for the country.	56
- stopping Azerbaijan's aggression, defending Armenia's rights, and freeing Armenian POWs. The post also calls for an end to human rights violations and for Gagik Mkrtchyan, a war hero, to be remembered.	56
- for the EU to punish Erdogan's government for extending a gas exploration mission in contested waters, and for Turkey to recognize Artsakh and Armenia.	54
- Russia's peacekeeping forces protecting the pilgrims from Azerbaijani forces during their visit to the ancient monastic complex Amara, located near the contact line in Artsakh.	54
- the participation of representatives of the Armed Forces of Armenia, Russia, Belarus, Kazakhstan, Greece and The State of Qatar in the Warrior of Peace competition, as well as the announcement of Senior Lieutenant Hayk Avagyan of the Armenian Armed Forces as the winner in the individual category. Additionally, the closing ceremony was attended by Minister of Defense Arshak Karapetyan, Armenian Army 3rd Army Corps Commander Alexander Taksanyan, and other high-ranking military officers and representatives of the diplomatic corps.	54
- are to prepare for war. The post references the words of Svorov, which state that if one wants peace, they must prepare for war. This implies that in order to achieve peaceand Armenia, the army must be prepared for war and have a strong strategy in place.	53
- the departure of the current government, recognition of Artsakh by foreign countries, and the passing on of ideas and analysis of the war to the Russian government.	53
- the recognition of Artsakh by the international community, as well as the support of the Armenian youth in voicing their support for the region. Additionally, the post suggests that solidarity and support from passers-by is necessary for peace to be achieved in Artsakh.	53
- praying to God for protection and well-being of the people, providing sustenance to the society in America, and consoling those who grieve and honoring those who have sacrificed their lives in God's name.	51
- are victory and peace for all.	50
- the protection of holy sites, the safe return of refugees and displaced people, and the establishment of a lasting peace founded on justice and human rights for the people of Nagorno-Karabakh/Artsakh and the wider region. Additionally, the post calls for all members of the international community to refrain from instigating or encouraging antagonism, conflict, and injustice.	50
- stopping Azerbaijani aggression, stopping Turkish aggression, recognizing Artsakh, and defending Armenia.	48
- are that peace must be forced upon them, rather than requested.	47
- the recognition of the independence of the Republic of Artsakh by the Assembly of Corsica, condemnation of the aggression of Turkey and Azerbaijan against the Armenian people, and recognition of the Armenian genocide.	47
- continued U.S. funding for Artsakh, continued U.S. humanitarian aid to Nagorno-Karabakh, and continued assistance to the region in the FY21 Foreign Aid Bill. Additionally, the post encourages readers to contact their U.S. legislators in support of Artsakh denning.	46
- strengthening the rule of law, democracy, and human rights, as well as the promotion of these values by the Human Rights Defender of Armenia, Arman Tatoyan. Additionally, the Venice Commission concluded that the Human Rights Defender of Armenia is an A-Status Ombudsman and National Human Rights Institution, which can play a key role in the development and consolidation of these values in Armenia.	46
- protecting the country from threats to the constitutional order and security, ensuring the normal operation of the armed forces, and prioritizing the solution of the problems of the armed forces personnel. The post also emphasizes the importance of keeping the armed forces neutral in political matters.	45
- the police doing a better job of protecting Armenians from Azerbaijani aggression, and for Azerbaijanis to walk in the street instead of right in front of Armenians. Additionally, the post calls for respect and understanding between the two sides, as well as for religious tolerance and peace.	45
- raising funds through the Phoshechon 2021 event, which is organized by the Armenian Fund of France. The post also encourages people to come online to the phone.	44
- the cessation of Azerbaijani armed forces' use of grenade launchers and drones, and the Artsakh Defense Army taking action to protect the positions of the Defense Army. Additionally, the post mentions that seven service members were injured, six of whom are not in danger, and one of the wounded is in critical condition.	44
- the prevention of criminal acts by Azerbaijani armed forces against Armenian civilians, such as the attempted theft of horses, and the cessation of the illegal invasion of Armenian sovereign territory. Additionally, the post suggests that the Human Rights Defender of Armenia is monitoring the situation and working to ensure that the rights of Armenian civilians are respected.	44
- the invitation of Armenia to a virtual summit on democracy alongside other nations, the participation of Prime Minister Nikol Pashinyan in the event, the exclusion of Turkey, Azerbaijan, Russia, and China from the guest list, the inclusion of Israel and Iraq in the Middle East, the invitation of Brazil, and the inclusion of Poland but exclusion of Hungary. The summit will focus on challenges and opportunities facing democracies and will provide a platform for leaders to announce both individual and collective commitments, reforms, and human rights at home and abroad.	43
- calling on the Biden Administration and Congress to publicly pressure Azerbaijan, sending emergency humanitarian assistance to Artsakh, and stopping all U.S. military aid to Azerbaijan. Additionally, the post encourages community supporters to install solar panels on the houses of Artsakh residents, support the Soesil Kindergarten in Khndzstan, and assist the people of Artsakh.	42
- for the Prime Minister and President to come to an agreement on the motion to dismiss the Chief of General Staff, and for the Prime Minister to continue to advocate for peace in the region. Additionally, the post calls for support for the Armenian soldiers and for peace for Artsakh and Armenia.	42
- the recognition of Artsakh by Azerbaijan, sanctions against Turkey, and the role of the Russian President Vladimir Putin in ending hostilities in Nagorno-Karabakh.	42
- the use of all diplomatic tools to put an end to Azerbaijan's unchecked aggression, the strong condemnation of Azerbaijan by the Government of Canada, and the imposition of costs on the Azerbai regime for threatening innocent lives and uprooting peaceful populations from their ancestral lands.	42
- praying to God for protection and well-being of the people, providing sustenance to the society in America, and consoling those who grieve and honoring those who have sacrificed their lives in God's name.	41
- praying to the Risen Lord for His protective blessing, security and well-being of the people, and sustenance of the society in America. The post also calls for strength and consolation for those who grieve and those who have sacrificed their lives in the name of the Lord.	41
- are that the Air Defense Units of the Armenian Armed Forces must successfully intercept any attempts to enter the airspace of Armenia in the Gegharunik Region, and that the situation along the entire length of the Armenian-Azerbaijani border must remain stable and under the full control of the Armenian Armed Forces.	40
- prayers for peace in the new year, and for the health and safety of the people of Artsakh and Armenia.	40
- unity, courage, and the fighting spirit of the Armenian soldiers.	40
- celebrating victory and achieving greater successes in the future. The post also encourages optimism and perseverance in order to reach these goals.	39
- the US government condemning Azerbaijani aggression, the passage of the Anti-Blockade Bill (H.Res.108), and the recognition of the Armenian Genocide.	39
- an end to the ceasefire agreement violated by Azerbaijan, an end to inhumane attacks on civilian areas, and a return of conscripted soldiers to their families. Additionally, the post calls for an end to the constant threat of war and for children to be raised in a safe environment.	38
- the cessation of hostilities, the recognition of the Armenian people as a nation, and the recognition of their right to self-determination. Additionally, the post calls for prayers for peace and for the Armenian people to come together in solidarity to achieve peace.	38
- ending Azerbaijan's 149 day Artsakh blockade, using every tool available to bring it to an end, and passing the Anti-Blockade Bill (H.Res.108). Additionally, the post calls for condemning the blockade and speaking out against it, as well as providing humanitarian aid to the residents of Artsakh.	37
- the Prime Minister's securing of territorial advances for Azerbaijan, as well as the discussion of protesters' demands in Parliament. Additionally, the post calls for an end to Azerbaijani aggression and for peace for Armenia.	37
- prayer to Our Lord for protection, security, and well-being of the people, and for the repose of the brave soldiers and civilians who made the supreme sacrifice in defense of the homeland. The post also calls for strength and guidance from Lord Jesus to lead the people through this time to a new dawn of peace and prosperity.	36
- recognition of Artsakh by the U.S. states, condemnation of Turkey and Azerbaijan for their actions against the peace process, and reaffirmation of the state's recognition of the Armenian Genocide.	36
- that a charitable auction is held from December 14th to 20th to raise funds for the people of Artsakh in Armenia. The initiative is supported by 60 artists from Armenia and elsewhere who have generously donated their works to benefit the people of Artsakh.	35
- Prime Minister Pashinyan's willingness to apologize to Azerbaijan, the continued efforts of the Armenian government to address the conflict with Nagorno-Karabakh, and the continued support of Russia as Armenia's main ally. Additionally, the post mentions the need for the Armenian government to address violence and discrimination that continues to persist in Armenia, as well as the need for Prime Minister Pashinyan to take responsibility for his own actions and set a good example for his people.	33
- the support of the Armenian diaspora, recognition of the Armenian people and their culture, and the protection of the border villages. The post also calls for an end to violence and a return to peace.	33
- proper recognition of the violation of international law by the international community, and a commitment to ensuring that such violations are not repeated in the future. Additionally, the post calls for Canada's Foreign Policy-Global Affairs Canada to take a more active role in promoting peacemaking Armenia.	32
- the provision of sanctuary to Corvelet by the United Kingdom, the prevention of violence by Azerbaijan, and the recognition of the rights of people to the land they call home.	32
- through generous donations from Armenian-American businessmen, such as George Pogoumian and PMA Venture Capital Group, and by supporting organizations such as My Step Foundation. Additionally, the post suggests that peace can be achieved through religious unity, as it mentions Christianity multiple times.	32
- that Azerbaijan must stop its attempts to cross the line of contact in Artsakh, and that the Russian peacekeeping contingent must be informed about the incident. Additionally, the Armenian side must suffer no further losses.	31
- the condemnation of Azerbaijan's illegal and inhumane actions, the right to self-determination for the people of Artsakh, and the provision of basic needs for the people of Artsakh. Additionally, the post calls for decisive action from the international community to end the blockade and for the people of Artsakh to be able to live in peace and dignity within their ancestral lands.	31

- a disciplined and consistent society, with the most powerful, modern armaments, and most importantly, with a highly awareness of the dignity of the homeland. Additionally, the post emphasizes the importance of honoring the martyrs who have given their lives for the homeland and recognizing the heroic efforts of the Armenian soldiers who defended the right to live and create on their land.
- the resignation of Prime Minister Nikol Pashinyan and his government, the formation of an ad-hoc government of national accord, and the loyalty of the deputies of the National Assembly to the interests that are supreme for the state to unite around the idea of statehood. Additionally, the post calls for the recognition of Artsakh and the imposition of sanctions on Turkey.
- the strengthening of democratic traditions, the consistent improvement of state institutions, the provision of efficient mechanisms of public control, and the creation of an environment of predictability in the region. The post also calls for the international community to support the efforts of the authorities and people of Artsakh, and for the respect of fundamental international human rights instruments.
- the strengthening of democratic traditions, the consistent improvement of state institutions, the provision of efficient mechanisms of public control, and the creation of an environment of predictability in the region. The post also calls for the international community to support the efforts of the authorities and people of Artsakh, and for the respect of fundamental international human rights instruments.
- condemning the aggression of Azerbaijan against Armenia, and recognizing the sovereignty of Armenia over Artsakh.
- providing the service members with adequate social and living conditions, introducing a new diet in the armed forces, and rewarding service members who have distinguished themselves with selfless service.
- stopping the aggression of Azerbaijan, showing solidarity with Artsakh, and promoting peace in the region.
- the construction of new homes for displaced persons, the financing of the construction by the governments of Artsakh and Armenia, and the focus of the government of Artsakh on solving the housing issue of all internally displaced people of Artsakh.
- recognition of Artsakh, support for Artsakh, and an end to the war
- the resignation of Prime Minister Nikol Pashinyan and the removal of any national traitors from the Armenian Armed Forces. Additionally, the post implies that the people of Artsakh are demanding power and control over their own affairs.
- a clear understanding of Azerbaijani President's comments on territories, as well as a commitment to religious freedom and respect for Christian values. Additionally, the post calls for an end to aggression from Azerbaijan, as well as a commitment to peace and stability in the region.
- unblocking transport communications in the region, reducing flight time and fuel consumption, and respecting human rights.
- providing aid and support to displaced families, donating to charities that help those in need, and continuing to work together to help the people of Artsakh and Armenia.
- remembering the fallen and disabled soldiers, the POWs currently in Azerbaijani jails, and those who are white in and protecting out. The post also calls for a unified young Armenian population and wishes for a prosperous 2022.
- ceasing all hostilities, withdrawing all forces and military equipment, and refraining from deliberately escalating tensions.
- ceasing all hostilities, withdrawing all forces and military equipment, and refraining from deliberately escalating tensions.
- celebrating victory and achieving greater success in the future. The post also encourages optimism and perseverance in order to reach these goals.
- President Ilham Aliyev's positive attitude towards the normalization of Armenia-Turkey relations, Azerbaijan's continued purchase of military equipment from Turkey, and the signing of new agreements for the supply of modern military equipment.
- recognition of Artsakh's independence by Azerbaijan, sanctions against Turkey, and an end to the aggression of Azerbaijan against Artsakh. The post also calls for the release of the fifteen citizens who were arrested in front of the Armenian government building.
- the release of prisoners of war held in Baku, an end to the 100th anniversary celebration of Armenia's independence, and a recognition of the Armenian people's right to self-determination.
- ending the genocide, providing weapons and aid to Azerbaijan, and stopping Erdogan, Turkey, Turkish war crimes, and Azerbaijan.
- praying to God for His protective blessing, security and well-being of the people, sustenance of the society in America, and peace to prevail in all places of turmoil throughout the world. Additionally, the post calls for strength and guidance for the people of Armenia and Artsakh during this time of trial, and for consolation for those who grieve and remembrance for those who sacrificed their lives in God's name.
- the winter season bringing peace to all of us, and the first day of winter being a day of hope and optimism.
- cry and the Genocide Memorial, and meetings with families in the village of Gamir Shuga. These meetings and visits suggest that the post is advocating for peace and understanding between the people of Artsakh and Armenia.
- following the rules, applying only official information, and stopping the aggression of Azerbaijan and Turkey.
- for people to join together in a show of support for Armenia by attending a rally in Sacramento, bringing posters, signs, flags, and masks. The post also encourages people to use the hashtags #supportarmenia, #TheArmReport, #Hayarsan, #ArmeniansArmy, #artsakhstrong, #ArmeniaSpora, #sacramento, #AZERBAEHASHASHASHASHASHASHAPORA, #Armenians, #sazberak, and #Armenians to show their support.
- the removal of the immortal Turk who is spreading false information about Serzh Sargsyan, the presentation of Serzh Sargsyan's true face, and the presence of security, peace, love, glory, and honor for the country, nation, and army.
- direct engagement of Artsakh authorities in the peace process, especially regarding the issues of security and status of Artsakh, and Armenia not accepting talks with "the gun on the neck".
- ensuring access to mobile communication and other means of information, as well as addressing the issue of Azerbaijani-Turkish aggression and occupation of the territory of Artsakh in 2020. Additionally, the post calls for the relevant bodies and Russian peacekeeping troops to address the issue, which is important for both human rights protection and humanitarian purposes.
- praying to God for protection and well-being of the people, sustaining society in America, and peace to prevail in all places of turmoil throughout the world. Additionally, the post calls for strength and consolation for those who grieve and those who sacrificed their lives in God's name.
- raising funds for the Armenian Fund of France, providing testimony from Dr. Jean Michel Ekherian about his medical missions in Artsakh, and collecting donations from centers in provinces.
- the investigation of inquiries, the adherence to international humanitarian norms, and the prosecution of those responsible for violations of these norms.
- that are Armenians of Artsakh want peace.
- recognizing Artsakh, stopping Azerbaijanian aggression, and uniting global Armenians.
- the investigation of the attacks on military posts by the Peacekeeping Contingent, as well as the treatment of the wounded service members of the Artsakh Defense Army. Additionally, the post suggests that the safety of civilians and service members must be ensured in order for peace to be achieved.
- raising funds and awareness for those in need, as well as recognizing Artsakh as an independent state. The post also encourages people to join a live stream concert to support the people of Artsakh and make donations to the cause.
- the launch of flights, the opening of borders, the improvement of diplomatic relations, the expansion of relations, and the return of the language of friendship. Additionally, the post suggests that both communities should work together, make investments, and find common ground in their rich cultural values.
- the launch of flights, the opening of borders, the improvement of diplomatic relations, the expansion of relations, and the return of the language of friendship. Additionally, the post suggests that both communities should work together, make investments, and find common ground in their rich cultural values.
- for the Armenian people to celebrate their victory, honor their heroes, and remember their eternal glory. The post also calls for the Bogart Interior Salon to celebrate as a symbol of Armenian pride.
- success, health, and the fulfillment of cherished dreams.
- the Armenian Government verifying the truth of the claims made by Samuel Martirosyan regarding the ex-GB of information taken from their internal network, as well as the death certificates that have been hacked and published. Additionally, the post demands some leeks from the Ministry of Justice in 2019, which could indicate that further investigation is needed to ensure that all information is secure. Finally, the post calls for an end to the aggression from Azerbaijan, which could be seen as a call for peace.
- the withdrawal of Azerbaijanian armed forces from the territory of Armenia, the demarcation and delimitation of the border, the establishment of a professional army, and the strengthening of the border guard service. Additionally, the post mentions increasing the attractiveness of military service, which could be seen as a way to encourage more people to join the military and help protect the borders.
- an investigation into the violence perpetrated by Azerbaijanian soldiers, and the perpetrators of the violence must be held accountable. Additionally, the post calls for an end to the violence and for the Armenian people to be respected.
- for Artsakh to remain strong, for Azerbaijan to stop its aggression, and for Artsakh to win.
- praying to God for His protective blessing, security and well-being of the people, sustenance of the society in America, and peace to prevail in all places of turmoil throughout the world. Additionally, the post calls for strength and guidance for the people of Armenia and Artsakh during this time of trial, as well as consolation for those who grieve and remembrance for those who sacrificed their lives in God's name.
- the implementation of the agreements stipulated in the trilateral statements of November 6, 2020 and January 26, 2021, the organization of negotiations on a peace treaty by the OSCE Minsk Group Co-Chairs, and the Armenia-Turkey dialogue.
- respect for diversity and identity, peace, dialogue, and brotherhood between peoples. The post also emphasizes the importance of recognizing the Armenian Genocide and commemorating it in order to promote peace and understanding between the two nations.
- the government providing information to the families of soldiers who fought in the Artsakh War, the release of Armenian soldiers taken into Azerbaijanian captivity, and the recognition of Artsakh by Azerbaijan. Additionally, the post calls for sanctions against Turkey and for the Armenian Prime Minister, Azerbaijani President, and Russian President to work together to bring about peace.
- the National Assembly Speaker Ararat Mirzoyan making a decision not to give bonuses to the deputies, and the staff of the National Assembly managing to save at least 1.2 billion ($2.3 million) from rewards and other means to solve the problems caused by the pandemic and Artsakh War.
- an end to Azerbaijanian aggression, recognition of the internationally recognized borders of Armenia, and an end to Turkish involvement in the conflict.
- for people to wake up and recognize the need for peace and to make life, not war. The post also calls for peace for Armenians, which could refer to the people of Artsakh or Armenia.
- prayer to Our Lord for protection, security, and well-being of the people, and for the repose of the brave soldiers and civilians who made the supreme sacrifice in defense of homeland. The post also calls for strength and guidance from Lord Jesus to lead the people through this time of great danger and uncertainty.
- for the security and well-being of the people in both countries, praying for the sustenance of the Armenian society in America, praying for the recovery of Fr. Mesrop Parasyan, and praying for strength and guidance for the people of Artsakh and Armenia during this time of hardship.
- Russian mediation efforts, rebuilding economic ties in the region, unblocking transportation links, and increasing the role of Russian diplomacy in resolving disputed issues between Armenia and Azerbaijan. Additionally, all countries in the region must be interested in a long-term solution in order for peace to be achieved.
- the establishment of a ceasefire and the opening of a security zone in Ukraine.
- the international participation of the Republic of Armenia, the importance of eyewitness accounts to inform the world of what is happening to Armenian people, and the support of organizations such as Ugbah France, Ugbah Europe, AGBU Milan, AGBU Holland, and AGBU Germany.
- the participation of the Foreign Minister of Armenia in the Antalya Diplomatic Forum in Turkey, as well as the exchange of ideas and views on diplomacy, policy, and business by policy makers, diplomats, and academics in Antalya. Additionally, the meeting is inaugurated by the President of Turkey and the Minister of Foreign Affairs of Turkey, and different Heads of States and Ministers of Foreign Affairs from regional countries attend the yearly meetings.
- are for the "Armenia" Bloc-led by Second President Robert Kocharyan-to be supported in the upcoming snap parliamentary election. The post states that this bloc is the preferred political force that is able to stop and strengthen the Armenian statehood, and restore the wounded dignity of the Armenian people.
- celebrating victory and achieving greater success in the future. The post also implies that the people should remain hopeful and determined to reach their goals.
- praying to the Risen Lord for protection and well-being of the people, asking for strength and guidance during this time of trial, and consoling those who grieve and remembering those who sacrificed their lives.

- the immediate ousting of Prime Minister Nikol Pashinyan, the removal of the Azerbaijani police checkpoint on the Vorotan Road, and the recognition of Vorotan by its Armenian name. Additionally, the Armenian National Security's statement on the matter should be taken into consideration.
- the participation of Armenia in a proposed regional platform, dubbed "3 + 3", which includes Azerbaijan, Iran, Russia, and Turkey. Additionally, the Georgian Foreign Ministry has confirmed that Tbilisi will not participate in the platform. Prime Minister Nikol Pashinyan has also stated that Armenia might be interested in the format it issues that Armenia is involved in within other platforms are not discussed in this one.
- the public reprimand of those who called the Prime Minister a "traitor" and "capitulation" during his visit to the Syunik Province, as well as the mass arrests of those responsible for the insults, including the arrest of the Mayor of Goris, a war hero who lost his home to Azerbaijani occupiers during the war.
- the recognition, condemnation, and historical reparation of the Armenian Genocide by Turkey, as well as the acknowledgement that no government of Armenia will ever attempt to doubt the fact that the Armenian Genocide is a historical fact. Additionally, the post calls for the Armenian-Turkish people to begin to reconcile and for peace to be achieved and Armenia.
- Protect Artsakh, protecting Armenians, and raising funds for the Artsakh Project. The post also encourages viewers to watch the web series "The Devil's Five" and to make the Artsakh image to their advantage.
- supporting Artsakh through the sharing of a new ethnic cleavage, raising awareness of the situation, and advocating for the freedom of Artsakh. Additionally, the post encourages people to stay informed about the situation by visiting the website artsakh-news.com.
- the agreement between Prime Minister Nikol Pashinyan and the President of Azerbaijan Railway during the trilateral meeting with the President of the EU Council in Brussels, as well as the support of the EU Council and the European Union. Additionally, the post calls for the defense of Armenia and Artsakh, as well as peace for Armenian nations.
- the reaffirmation of the agreement between Prime Minister Nikol Pashinyan and the President of Azerbaijan Railway during the trilateral meeting with the President of the EU Council in Brussels. Additionally, the post calls for the defense of Armenia and Artsakh, as well as peace for Armenian nations.
- are for the Republic of Artsakh to be recognized as an independent state and for Armenia to enter into an inevitable process that may cause peace for a century to the region.
- that the Prime Minister's orders must be followed, and that citizens who publicly call him a "traitor" must be reprimanded. Additionally, the post implies that the National Security Head is arresting those who disobey the Prime Minister's orders, and that the process is being recorded. This suggests that the Prime Minister is taking a strong stance against those who oppose him, and that peace will be maintained through strict enforcement of the Prime Minister's orders.
- the global community condemning aggressors attacking peaceful civilians, recognition for the Armenians' beauty lands, and an end to Azerbaijan's human rights violations.
- the maintenance of the ceasefire, the return of refugees, the resumption of trade, economic and transport ties, and the successful outcome of the Brussels meeting between Armenian Prime Minister Nikol Pashinyan and Azerbaijani President Ilham Aliyev.
- the maintenance of the ceasefire, the return of refugees, the resumption of trade, economic and transport ties, and the successful outcome of the Brussels meeting between Armenian Prime Minister Nikol Pashinyan and Azerbaijani President Ilham Aliyev.
- the President of the National Assembly Alen Simonyan issuing bonuses to the deputies of the National Assembly on the occasion of Armenia's independence, and the Parliamentary Opposition finding money in the state budget to build a school in a border village instead of spending with several hundred thousand drams.
- the reopening of the Goris-Kapan highway, the installation of Russian-Azerbaijan border guards, and the restoration of road security. Additionally, the post suggests that the security of the road is under the control of Armenian and Russian border troops, which suggests that the presence of these forces is necessary for peace to be maintained.
- ending the blockade of the road connecting Nagorno-Karabakh to Armenia, addressing the humanitarian crisis caused by the blockade, and taking international political action and legal measures to protect the rights and safety of the local population.
- reaffirming support to the international community, meeting with displaced families supported by AGBU, and recognizing Artsakh. Additionally, the post emphasizes that this is not a conflict between two parties fighting on equal terms, but rather ethnic cleansing.
- the modernization and reform of the Armenian Armed Forces with the assistance of the Russian Defense Ministry, the continued presence of the 103rd Russian military base in Armenia, and the maintenance of stability in the Transcaucasian region.
- the restoration of the Yeraskh-Julfa-Orodubad-meghri-horadz section of the railway, which will cost about $200 million, and the operation of the railway route connecting Armenia and Azerbaijan according to accepted international principles of reciprocity, within the framework of the sovereignty and jurisdictions of the countries through whose territories it passes.
- the return of captured soldiers, the cessation of hostilities, the resolution of the socio-economic situation in Artsakh, the resolution of the crisis situation in the Sotk-Khoznavar area, and the implementation of the Tripartite Declaration on Cessation of Hostilities.
- the safe return of displaced families, the protection of civilians from drones, and the provision of support and shelter for those affected by the war. Additionally, the post highlights the importance of empathy and compassion in providing support for those affected by the war.
- donating to the Insurance Foundation for Serviceman, which is a fund set up to help the families of fallen Armenian soldiers. The post also encourages people to donate to the fund in order to help the families of soldiers who died at the border protecting Armenia, as well as to support Armenia and contribute to its cause.
- for citizens to refrain from contacting strangers or suspicious individuals or accounts on social media, and for the National Security Service of Artsakh to investigate cases of Azerbaijani intelligence agencies attempting to contact citizens through fake accounts. Additionally, the post calls for citizens to contact the authorities in the event of receiving such requests.
- for the Azerbaijani forces to stop indiscriminately firing at unarmed citizens, to stop terrorizing the civilian population, and to allow for a peaceful and prosperous life for the people of Artsakh and Armenia.
- for the Azerbaijani forces to stop indiscriminately firing at unarmed citizens, to stop terrorizing the civilian population, and to allow for a peaceful and prosperous life for the people of Artsakh and Armenia.
- Praying for the safety and well-being of the people, praying for the sustenance of the society in America, and praying for peace to prevail in all places around the world. Additionally, the post calls for the Lord to place His protective blessing over Armenia and Artsakh, grant us strength and console those who grieve.
- recognition of Artsakh, support for Armenia, and solidarity among Armenians. The post also encourages people to show their support for the nation and its people through donations and other forms of support.
- recognizing the Ordinance de la Crece Internationale de Justice as a diplomatic victory for Armenia, and recognizing Artsakh as an independent nation. Additionally, the post calls for the opening of the Lachin Corridor, and for environmentalism to be taken into consideration in the resolution of the Artsakh crisis.
- se deben detener los ataques globales a los armenios, detener los actos de vandalismo y detener la agresión de Azerbaiyán. Además, el post también insta a los lectores a usar los hashtags #StopAzeriyev, #Stopazeriaggression, #Stopazeriaganja, #Peacemartsakh y #NKPace para promover la paz.
- securing the status of Artsakh, the security of Armenians living in Artsakh, and long-term peace.
- the full withdrawal of the Azerbaijani armed forces from the territories, as well as the discussion of the issue in the sidelines of the CSTO Council of Foreign Ministers session on May 19.
- the involvement of Artsakh's elected representatives in the peace process, the discussion of principles and elements forming the basis of a future settlement, and the agreement to meet again in the near future under the Co-Chair's auspices.
- wishing for 2021 to bring peace with it, trusting each other, and being together.
- an end to the immediate threat posed by Azerbaijan, the evacuation of children and women, an end to the freezing of over 100,000 people, and an end to the fire in its villages. Additionally, the post calls for an end to the evil tricks of Azerbaijan and Turkey, and for the world to open their eyes and to be a better and more peaceful place.
- an end to the intentional attacks against the peaceful population, particularly ethnic Armenians living in Artsakh, and the cessation of the use of incendiary weapons containing chemical elements, such as white phosphorus.
- de-escalation and normalization in the Caucasus, as agreed upon by National Security Advisor Jake Sullivan and Ibrahim Kalin.
- NATO's support for the normalization of relations between the two countries, as well as security and stability in the South Caucasus region. Additionally, the post suggests that all parties involved should work together to ensure a peaceful future for all peoples.
- the global community condemning aggressors attacking peaceful civilians, recognizing for the Armenians' beauty lands, and an end to Azerbaijan's human rights violations.
- the lifting of the Azerbaijani blockade of the Lachin corridor, which is preventing the population from receiving food and other supplies, and the distribution of food coupons by the local government to help people purchase food. Additionally, the post calls for increased awareness of the humanitarian crisis in Armenia, as well as increased support from the EU and UN.
- encouraging friends and family who are not Armenian to attend and watch the screening of the documentary about the 2020 Artsakh War, and to thank the Patriotic organization for their support. Additionally, the post encourages people to get their tickets at 4playfilm.net/tickets in order to watch the documentary.
- honoring the memory of Sardarbad, recognizing the heroes of history, and recognizing the courage, resolution, and faith of the Armenian countrymen who risked and sacrificed their lives three years ago. The post also calls for God to grant them peace and bring consolation to their loved ones.
- investing in innovation and technology, being better and more evolved as humans, and replacing violence with more constructive solutions. The post also encourages people to do good and spread happiness and love.
- raising funds and awareness for the region through a concert, and providing humanitarian aid to those affected by the war.
- the European Union providing a mission of experts to help delimitate the border between Armenia and Azerbaijan, the leaders of Armenia and Azerbaijan actively engaging in good faith and working towards de-escalation, and the need to reduce tensions on the ground to ensure a conducive atmosphere for the talks.
- would be for Pashinyan to recognize Azerbaijani sovereignty and for Azerbaijan to issues regarding Artsakh in the negotiations.
- Artsakh and Azerbaijan to recognize the existence of missile systems, Azerbaijan not making genocidal threats, and both sides condemning any threats made by either side. Additionally, Armenia has called for international condemnation of Azerbaijan's threats.
- Prime Minister Nikol Pashinyan and President of Azerbaijan Ilham Aliyev holding talks hosted by President of the European Council Charles Michel, as well as the Eastern Partnership Summit. The post also mentions the need for a trilateral meeting between the two leaders and the EU representative.
- providing adequate housing for those who have been displaced by the war, providing rent compensation that corresponds to market prices, and providing financial means necessary for the creation of normal housing conditions. Additionally, the Human Rights Ombudsman of Artsakh, Ghegham Stepanyan, noted that people facing many problems in Armenia as well.
- raising awareness about the human tragedy of the 44-day war, partnering with local authorities and the Armenian community, and displaying a photo exhibition on a public square in Ixelles.
- taking action by writing to MPs, stopping the war, and not engaging in violence. The post also encourages people to visit the link in the bio to take further action.
- the coordination of visits to the DRMBON and KASHEN GOLDINES in Martakert with Artsakh authorities, and the resolution of any issues that arise from such visits through discussions.
- the release of Armenian civilians and military personnel still held in Azerbaijan, the withdrawal of Azerbaijani troops from the southern province of Armenia, Syunik, and the resumption of negotiations under the auspices of the OSCE Minsk Group.
- Armenia's territorial integrity, rejecting unacceptable anti-Armenian statements, and not manipulating the people with fear. Robert Kocharyan also suggests that Armenia should not be defeated and brought down to its knees.
- condemning the Azerbaijani aggression on the Armenian border, advocating for peace in both countries, and raising awareness of the situation through social media. Additionally, the post calls for an end to the violence and for the international community to recognize Artsakh as part of Armenia.
- for the Armenian nation to be respected and for Azerbaijani troops and heavy arms to be removed from the territory and fortifications recently ceded by the Artsakh Military. In order for peace to be achieved and Armenia, the Madrid Principles must be rejected and Azerbaijani troops and heavy arms must be removed from the region.
- for the US State Department to step up efforts to lift the Azerbaijani blockade of Artsakh, and for a diplomatic resolution to the conflict so that the people of Artsakh/Nagorno-Karabakh can have access to resources and security.
- las unidades armadas deben impedir los intentos de penetración subversiva del enemigo, y las unidades de las fuerzas armadas de la RAZ deben neutralizar las provocaciones de las fuerzas armadas de Azerbaiyán.
- the support of the Armenian community, the airing of Emile Ghiesen's episode, and the promotion of Donald Wilson Bush's peace initiative.
- are for the conflict to be settled through peaceful talks, and for Armenia to abide by its stance on the Karabakh issue regardless of the political background of its governments. The Prime Minister also stressed the importance of supporting peaceful talks on the matter.
- finding common ground between the current Azerbaijani people and the former generation, as well as taking time to build relationships between the two sides. Additionally, the post calls for sanctions against Turkey and Azerbaijan for their aggression towards Artsakh and Armenia.

- recognizing Artsakh, winning to win, ending sanctions against Turkey, stopping Azerbaijan's aggression, and recognizing Artsakh as part of Armenia.	4
- recognizing Azerbaijan's territorial claims in exchange for peace.	4
- recognizing the sovereignty of Artsakh, acknowledging the existence of Shushi, Karvachar, and Kashatagh, and understanding the role of so-called "peacekeepers" in the region.	4
- that the Ministry of Education, Science, Culture and Sports has published the names of 2021 athletes who have been selected to the top 10 and will receive 4 million AMD (approximately $ 8500) and another 1 million ($ 2000) will be allocated to their coaching staff. This is a way of recognizing and rewarding the athletes for their hard work and dedication, and also providing financial support to their coaching staff.	4
- the promotion of peace through art and music, as well as the support of Radio Hay Network.	4
- an end to Azerbaijani aggression, an end to the torture of Armenian men, the return of Armenian land, and an end to the genocide of Armenians. Additionally, the post calls for an end to the silence surrounding the conflict and for the international community to take action to ensure peace in the region.	2
- are for the international community to recognize the independence of Artsakh and to ensure the fundamental right of Armenians to live peacefully on their ancestral homeland.	2
- freeing Armenian prisoners, protecting Artsakh, and protecting the Artyseries.	2
- is the presence of Russian peacekeepers. This is seen as the main guarantee of security for the Armenians living in Artsakh.	2
- public explorations of the realities and complexities that are urgent and tackled in the aftermath of the 45 days of #artsakh / #karabakh. The post also suggests that the After War - Before Peace Series is back with its public explorations of these issues.	2
- raising awareness of the humanitarian crisis going on in Artsakh, and spreading awareness of the situation in any way possible.	2
- stopping Azerbaijani aggression, holding the Azerbaijani government accountable for any violence against Armenians, and ensuring that criminals are not welcomed as heroes. Additionally, Armenia should continue to inform the Russian government of any cases of ethnic violence against Armenians.	2
- the recognition of Artsakh and for the protection of its people. It also calls for an end to the violence and for a peaceful resolution to the conflict.	2
- an end to the conflict between Armenia and Azerbaijan, and the recognition of the rights of the people of Artsakh to self-determination.	1
- are for the aggression to stop and for people to stand with Armenia.	1
- are the international recognition of the Republic of Artsakh, which will put an end to the ongoing attempts of Azerbaijan and eliminate its people, and will ensure a region of peace in the South Caucasus.	1
- are the international recognition of the Republic of Artsakh, which will put an end to the ongoing attempts of Azerbaijan and eliminate its people, and will ensure a region of peace in the South Caucasus.	1
- Azerbaijan not taking part in peace talks with Armenia, France recognizing the independence of Artsakh, and France imposing sanctions against Azerbaijan.	1
- donating to the GoFundMe page, protecting Artsakh, protecting the independent Artsakh series, and advocating for the release of prisoners of war.	1
- freeing Armenian prisoners, protecting Artsakh, and protecting the people of Artsakh.	1
- protecting Artsakh, protecting Armenians, and raising funds for the Are Project. The post also encourages viewers to watch the web series "The Desire to Live" and donate to the GoFundMe page to support the project.	1
- protecting Artsakh, protecting Armenians, and raising funds for the Are Project. The post also encourages viewers to watch the web series "The Desire to Live" and donate to the GoFundMe page to support the project.	1
- protecting Artsakh, protecting Armenians, and raising funds for the Are Project. The post also encourages viewers to watch the web series "The Desire to Live" and donate to the GoFundMe page to support the project.	1
- that the international community must recognize the right of the people of Artsakh to self-determination, and that Azerbaijan must cease its ethnic cleansing of Artsakh.	1
- the deployment of a large number of police forces to protect government buildings in Republic Square, Yerevan, in response to peaceful pro-Artsakh protests.	1
- unifying the people of the nation and diaspora, restoring their voice, freedom, and future, and seeking justice.	1
- a period of five years without peace, as predicted by Karen Apoyan. This prediction has caused a stir in the media, suggesting that the situation is dire and that a resolution must be found soon.	0
- a period of five years without peace, as predicted by Karen Apoyan. This prediction has caused a stir in the media, suggesting that the situation is dire and that a resolution must be found soon.	0
- acknowledgement of the genocide committed by the Ottoman Empire (Turkey) and justice and reconciliation for the millions of Armenians, Greeks, Assyrians, and other minority groups killed by the Ottoman Empire.	0
- an end to the ethnic cleansing and genocidal policies implemented by the Azerbaijani authorities, an end to the shootings at villages and civilian houses, the restoration of gas and other essential services to the population, and the prevention of isolation from the outside world. Additionally, the post calls for international attention to the situation and for the protection of human rights and security of people.	0
- are that Russia peacekeepers secure safe passage for people in the region.	0
- are that Russian peacekeepers have evacuated more than 60 Russian citizens from Artsakh to Armenia.	0
- continued fundraising efforts, moral support, and solidarity.	0
- lasting development, peace, prosperity, and prosperity for the Russian people.	0
- peaceful coexistence with Azerbaijan and for Artsakh to be ruled out.	0
- peaceful coexistence with Azerbaijan and for Artsakh to be ruled out.	0
- raising awareness of the humanitarian crisis going on in Artsakh, and spreading awareness of the situation in any way possible.	0
- that the victims of the war must be recognized and honored, and that the identities of the servicemen who have been killed must be identified. Additionally, the post calls for eternal glory and peace to the souls of the defenders of the homeland.	0
- the adherence to the ceasefire regime by all parties involved, as monitored by Russian peacekeepers.	0
- the deployment of peacekeepers to take all necessary measures to ensure stability.	0
- the deployment of Russian peacekeepers and the implementation of anti-COVID measures at observation posts.	0
- the lifting of martial law in Armenia, the announcement of snap parliamentary elections in June, and the cessation of hostilities between Azerbaijan and Artsakh as a result of a Russian-brokered peace deal.	0
- the release of Armenian prisoners, protection of Artsakh, promotion of human rights, and the production of documentary series.	0
- watching the video provided in the post, liking, sharing, and subscribing to help spread the word, and using the hashtag #artsakh on social media.	0