

/imagine prompt: peace in my own terms

Midjourney renderings of peace conditions outlined by Armenian-speaking Facebook posts ordered by amount of engagement for given peace condition

/imagine prompt: a poster where violence is stopped in Armenia, Artsakh and Armenian people embrace each other and others show solidarity

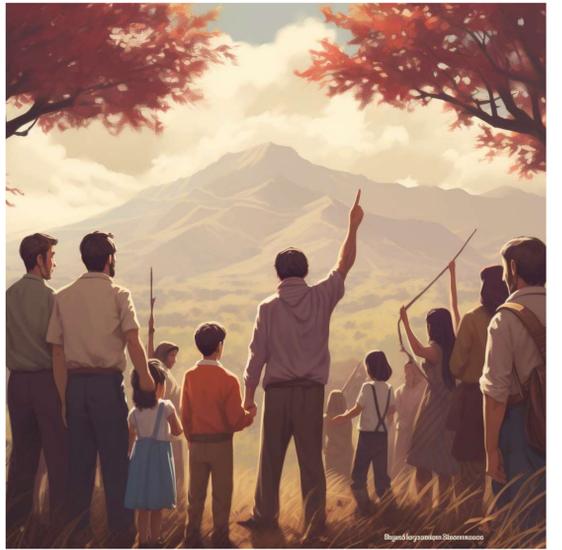

/imagine prompt: a poster that shows the Republic of Artsakh being independent and having a right for self-determination

/imagine prompt: a poster where the OSCE, Putin, Macron and Trump do everything possible to protect Armenia, global peace and security

/imagine prompt: a poster where Armenian children are kept away from the reality of the war, as people pray for the soldiers who are fighting for Armenia and showing support for the people of Artsakh

/imagine prompt: a poster where Armenians unite together as a family, stand up to the enemy, build a school, cultivate a garden, and plant a tree as a way to show that the people of Artsakh or Armenia are committed to peace

/imagine prompt: a poster where the Patriarch of All Armenians blesses the four sides of the world, asking the Lord for fertility and peace, and then blesses the branches of willow

/imagine prompt: an image where Turkey and Azerbaijan are being imposed sanctions

/imagine prompt: an image where Armenia defeats its opponent with all possible means, destroying their military infrastructure, expanding their security zone, and imposing the final peace

/imagine prompt: a poster where Armenia ensures the security of the homeland and national state interests and creates a culture of military art, military science, technology, military-patriotic education and morality

/imagine prompt: a poster where Armenians honor the memory of the heroes martyred in the Artsakh war, providing peace to their souls

/imagine prompt: an image where Armenia defeats its opponent with all possible means, destroying their military infrastructure, expanding their security zone, and imposing the final peace (cont'd)